We here and realize everyone has problems. Christmas Eve our daughter Mary her husband Ken & their kids Katie 18, Coley 14 + Grant 7 will have dinner here, Ken's mom will be here too. We usually attend Christmas Eve services at church but Wally isn't well enough this year. Christmas day will be fun at Ken's Maup. Wishing you a blessed Christmas and a life for now.

Love,

Wally & Lonaine

Dear Emmett and Mary Ellen.

It was just a year ago that Wally received a call that led to relocating you. Thanks also for Morgan Sims + Mike Whalen's addresses. We have corresponded with them. We made copies, for our kids, of the great photos you sent.

Hope you've had a beautiful and healthy year. Wally's health has drastically declined. So many small strokes, seizures and four hospitalizations. He is so sensitive to medication it's difficult to treat.

To wish you peace and joy at Christmas and many blessings throughout the New Year

Wally's mind still functions but his motor skills don't always work. Some meals he feeds himself and others he can't. We're thankful for the blessings
